

Your life, your style

Home comfort, room by room

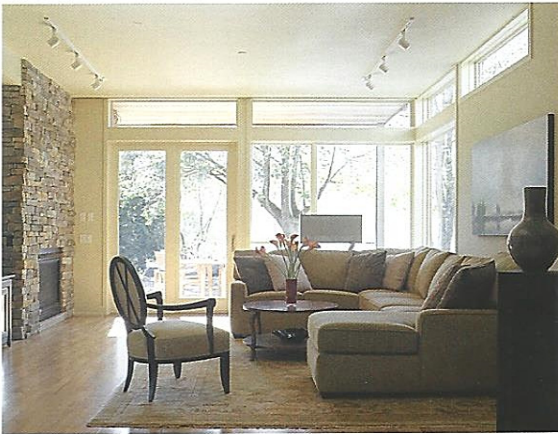

If you take home comfort seriously then it's time to consider Mr. Slim. With its ease of installation and flexibility, you don't have to restrict your comfort to only one part of your home. And with multiple sleek and stylish indoor units to choose from, you can rest assured that Mr. Slim will fit in almost unnoticed with the décor in any room.

Den: Just knowing how efficiently Mr. Slim operates can help give your home a more relaxed atmosphere.

Bedroom: Steady temperatures throughout the night let you sleep soundly in any weather.

Living Room: Whether you're working or relaxing, you'll notice the difference that a constant temperature makes.

The outdoor unit is so sleek and quiet, your neighbours won't even know you're heating or cooling your home.
